Introduction

All nurses who were educated outside of Canada and are seeking initial registration/licensure to practice in a Canadian province (with the exception of Quebec and the Territories) as a registered nurse (RN), licensed practical nurse (LPN) or a registered psychiatric nurse (RPN) must first complete an application to the National Nursing Assessment Service (NNAS).

NNAS is a partnership of Canadian nursing regulatory bodies. Its role is to streamline the application process for internationally educated nurses (IENs) who want to work in Canada. NNAS offers an easy, direct and secure way to review, verify and store documents that are required by nursing regulatory bodies to support a nurse's application for registration.

NNAS has three roles:

- ◇ To verify credentials for internationally educated nurses;
- ◇ To compare these credentials to Canadian standards;
- ◇ To provide a secure, centralized electronic repository for the nurse's education and registration credentials.

NNAS has a legal contract with CGFNS International, Inc. (Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools) in Pennsylvania; U.S.A. who will:

- ◇ review and store all documents required in a secure database
- ◇ ensure the documents are authentic;
- ◇ ensure that each nurse's file contains all the documents that the regulatory body requires
- ◇ evaluate the documents against Canadian standards;
- ◇ send the completed file to the regulatory body or bodies, for further action and decision on eligibility for Canadian nursing registration.

This Handbook describes the steps in completing the NNAS application. A detailed description of each step will help you understand the NNAS application process requirements.

Please read all instructions in this handbook carefully before submitting your NNAS application, and before sending any documents or forms to NNAS.

NNAS was created by the Canadian nursing regulatory bodies and the federal and provincial governments. NNAS received start-up funding from the Government of Canada's Foreign Credential Recognition Program.

NNAS Applications

The first step toward registration and licensure as a nurse in Canada is to complete a NNAS application.

You must set up an online account with NNAS and complete the application before your application will be considered by any Canadian nursing regulatory body. You are eligible to apply for a NNAS application if you:

- ◇ received your post-secondary nursing education outside of Canada;
- ◇ have never been registered to practice as a nurse in Canada
- ◇ want to work as a Registered Nurse (RN), Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN), or Registered Psychiatric Nurse (RPN) in Canada

By creating an NNAS account at <http://www.nnas.ca>, you can print required forms, check the status of your application, view email correspondence and language test results, as applicable, and update your contact information.

2. NNAS Advisory Report

The NNAS application process is intended to produce an Advisory Report that contains an evaluation of your education according to approved Canadian standards and compares your education to current Canadian nursing requirements for entry into practice. The report also contains detailed information about your registration/licensing, nursing practice, employment and results of any required language testing.

To check your NNAS application status, login to your online NNAS account at <http://www.nnas.ca/>

Reply to any letters or emails you receive from NNAS regarding additional information or documents that were not received.

After NNAS receives and evaluates all required documents, an Advisory Report will be completed within 6-8 weeks. NNAS will notify you by email when your Advisory Report is issued. Then you can go to your online NNAS account to view and print a copy.

From your online account YOU must then complete the application process applying to the regulatory body in the province where you wish to work.

Once your application and fees are received by the regulatory body, NNAS will send your file and Advisory Report to the regulatory body.

Important: All information requested on NNAS forms is required and must be provided from an approved source agency (for example educational institution, licensing authority and employer) for review and to complete a NNAS Advisory Report.

Falsified Or Altered Documents

If NNAS discovers that your documents have been altered in any way, or that information in your application is falsified, it will send the Advisory Report to the regulatory body you have designated and will notify them of the falsification. This includes all documents and application documents submitted by you or on your behalf by another person.

Therefore, before you send anything to NNAS, ensure that none of the documents and forms have been falsified or altered in any way.

3. Required Forms and Documents

a) Nursing Education Form

- ◇ Download and print the Nursing Education Form, including Part B: “Nursing Education Information” and Part C: “Identification of Official” from your online account.
- ◇ Send a Nursing Registration Form to each nursing authority outside of Canada where you obtained a license/registration (whether it is active or inactive). Ask them to complete the form, and send it by mail or courier directly to NNAS.
- ◇ If the official providing the educational instruction information is not the school official, the name and signature of this official must be provided as well.
- ◇ Note: You are responsible for paying any fee the school requests (including translation costs) to complete this form, prepare your documents, and send them to NNAS.
- ◇ If NNAS receives documents that are written in languages other than English or French, without an English or French (where applicable) translation attached, they can be translated by NNAS for a fee, at your request.

Important: NNAS must receive your completed Nursing Education Form and all of your nursing-related academic records/transcripts, and any other nursing program documents directly from school officials. NNAS will not accept a Nursing Education Form or any nursing education documents supplied by you or anyone else. After NNAS receives and evaluates your Nursing Education Form and academic record/transcript documents, you may be notified that further information is required.

b) Nursing Registration Form

- ◇ Download and print the Nursing Registration Form, including Part B: “Nursing Examination and Registration Information” and Part C: “Identification of Official” from your online account.
- ◇ Send a Nursing Registration Form to each post-secondary school outside Canada where you completed post-secondary courses related to your nursing education. Ask the school official who is authorized to provide the transcripts to complete the form and send them directly to NNAS by mail or courier, along with copies of your academic records/transcripts, nursing program curriculum/course descriptions, and/or course syllabi.
- ◇ The Nursing Registration Form must be completed by the official authorized to provide registration/licensing information. If you have a diploma that authorized you to work as a nurse in your country, ask the institution that issued the diploma (for example, your school or the Ministry of Health) to send an official copy of your diploma in the original language to NNAS.

- ◇ Note: You are responsible for any fee that the registration/licensing authority requests to complete this form, including translation costs.
- ◇ If NNAS receives documents that are in languages other than English or French, without an English or French (where applicable) translation attached, they can be translated by NNAS for fee, at your request.

Important: NNAS must receive your completed Nursing Registration Form and all registration/licensing related information and documents directly from the registration/licensing authority. NNAS will not accept a Nursing Registration Form or any nursing registration/licensing or diploma documents supplied by you or anyone else. After NNAS receives and evaluates your Nursing Registration Form or diploma documents, you may be notified that further information is required.

c) Nursing Practice/Employment Form

- ◇ Download and print the Nursing Practice/Employment Form, including Part B: “Employer Information” and Part C: “Identification of Employer Supervisor” from your online account.
- ◇ Send a Nursing Practice/Employment Form to each nursing employer you worked for in each of the last 5 years. The forms must be completed by the official authorized to provide your nursing employment information. Ask them to complete the forms and send them directly to NNAS by mail or courier.
- ◇ Note: You are responsible for any fee that your employer(s) requests (including translation costs) for completing this form.
- ◇ If NNAS receives forms that are written in languages other than English or French, without an English or French (where applicable) translation attached, they can be translated by NNAS for fee, at your request.

Important: NNAS must receive your completed nursing practice employment forms directly from your current and past employer(s). NNAS will not accept nursing employment forms supplied by you or anyone else. After NNAS receives and reviews your Nursing Practice/Employment Form, you may be notified that further information is required.

d) Proof of Identity documents

- ◇ As part of your application process, you must submit documents to confirm your identity. (See Proof of Identity Documents on page 5)
- ◇ NNAS does not accept original identity documents. All identity documents must be notarized copies of original documents.
- ◇ You must be with the notary when your original documents are copied and notarized as certified true copies.

- ◇ You are responsible for any fee that is requested for preparing the notarized documents.
- ◇ Note: Certified copies of expired identity documents will not be accepted.
- ◇ You can send the notarized copies of your proof of identity documents to NNAS by mail.

A Notary Public can prepare notarized copies of your documents. He or she is authorized by the government to certify that copied documents are true copies of the original. They apply their official signature and seal to each document they review, and declare in a written statement that they are not in any way related to the applicant.

- 1) In Canada, notarized copies must be prepared by a notary public or a lawyer.
- 2) Outside of Canada notarized copies must be prepared by an official in that jurisdiction who has the legal authority granted by the government to certify true copies of identity documents.

A notarized copy must include the following:

- ◇ the signature and seal of the notary public, along with their address and phone number, in case NNAS has to contact them.
- ◇ a written statement that the notary has seen the originals, made the copies, and is certifying that they are true copies of original documents.

Please ensure that your legal name on your passport, government issued identification, driver's license and\marriage certificate, education, employment, and other legal documents is exactly the same as on your NNAS application. If not, you must include additional documents to explain the discrepancy, such as a marriage certificate or divorce decree.

e) Document Translations

- ◇ All documents for your NNAS application must be written or translated into English or French (where applicable).
- ◇ Copies of your original identity documents must be notarized as certified true copies before the translations are done.
- ◇ You are responsible for all translation costs.

Translations can be done in 3 ways:

- ◇ By an approved source agency (for example an educational institution or licensing authority)
- ◇ By a certified translator
- ◇ By NNAS. You can contact NNAS by mail or email via Contact Us, and request a translation. This is done by a translation service used by CGFNS International, Inc., at the cost of $85.00 per page. You must specify the documents you want to be translated, the language of the documents and the number of pages. With this information, NNAS will notify you of the total cost and any further actions necessary to complete the translation service.

All translated documents must include:

- ◇ The translator's official stamp and/or identification number, address and telephone number, along with the date of the translation
- ◇ A statement by the translator that it is an accurate and authentic/true representation of original document(s)
- ◇ Printed name and original signature of translator

Note: NNAS will not accept documents translated by the applicant or anyone related to the applicant. The certified translations, along with the notarized true copies of the original documents, must be mailed directly from the translator to NNAS.

f) Proof of Language Proficiency documents

- ◇ For your NNAS application, you must prove that you can listen, speak, read and write in English or French (depending on the province where you intend to register)
  - o If your first language is English or French, you will be considered for a language exemption if you meet other criteria, such as:
    - i. If the primary language where you live and work is English or French (where applicable)
    - ii. If your nursing language of instruction, for both theory and clinical was in English or French (where applicable). On-line or distance education programs are not accepted as evidence of fluency
    - iii. If you can show evidence of safe practice within the last two years of working as a nurse, where services were provided in English or French (where applicable) and where the primary language of the practice setting and clients was English or French
  - o If your first language is not French or English, you will be required to take a language proficiency test (as applicable). NNAS will notify you to schedule a language test with one of these approved testing agencies:
    - i. IELTS - International English Language Testing System (IELTS) www.ielts.org
      - ◇ Only the Academic version is accepted.
    - ii. CELBAN - Canadian English Language Benchmark Assessment for Nurses
      - ◇ <http://www.celban.org>

iii. TEF - Test d'Évaluation de Français <http://www.francais.cci-paris-idf.fr/>

◇ The minimum (lowest acceptable) scores for the language tests are:

- o IELTS: Academic format - speaking 7, listening 7.5, reading 6.5, writing 7, overall 7
- o CELBAN: speaking 8, listening 10, reading 8, writing 7
- o TEF: speaking 5, listening 5, reading 4, writing 4, vocabulary 4

Combined scores from different tests are not acceptable. Scores must be obtained from a test taken at the same sitting. The exception is CELBAN, where an applicant may take the speaking component of the test separately from the listening, writing and reading components. The oldest of the 2 test dates will be used to determine the validity of the test.

Note: The date of your language test for which you have acceptable results, must be within 6 months of the date when your file is sent to the Regulatory Body of application. Your language test results must be sent directly to NNAS from the approved testing agency.

g) Third Party Authorization to Release Information

- ◇ NNAS protects your privacy, and will only discuss your application with you. If you choose to let NNAS disclose your file information or provide file status information to another person, you must submit a Third Party Authorization form to designate that person. (See form on page 17.)
- ◇ The completed Third Party Authorization form can be sent to NNAS by mail or courier.
- ◇ NNAS only keeps one mailing address per applicant. Therefore, NNAS will send any mailed correspondence to that address.
- ◇ Note: You can cancel your Third Party Authorization at any time. Send a letter to NNAS by mail or courier.
